

Women arrested on shoplifting charges in Ross Wednesday, October 27, 2010 Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

Two women, including an art teacher at Mars Elementary School, were arrested over the weekend on shoplifting charges in Ross. kamagra katabletten cialis generika argaiv1055

Tiffany Weatherly, 26, of Beaver Falls, and another woman were arrested Saturday afternoon after personnel at Macy's in Ross Park Mall summoned the officers.

Ross police Lt. Brian Kohlhepp said the two women are suspected of having stolen $1,100 worth of clothing from at least two outlets at the mall, American Eagle and the Gap. The second woman was not named in a police press release.

Upon arrival of police, Ms. Weatherly identified herself as an art teacher at Mars Elementary School.

School officials did not immediately answer inquiries this morning about Ms. Weatherly's status there.

The suspects were cited by summons. Their arraignments and preliminary hearings are pending.

First published on October 27, 2010 at 12:00 am

Read more: <http://www.post-gazette.com/pg/10300/1098282-54.stm#ixzz14Gw4xaYd>